

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

X CORP., INC.,

Plaintiff,

v.

BRIGHT DATA LTD.,

Defendant.

No. C 23-03698 WHA

FURTHER ORDER RE ALL
PENDING DISCOVERY DISPUTES, AND QUESTION FOR HEARING

The district court ordered responses and a hearing regarding X Corp.'s two discovery letter briefs (Dkt. No. 202 (re Dkt. Nos. 197, 199)). Then it ordered responses and a hearing regarding non-party Elon Musk's discovery letter brief respecting a document subpoena (Dkt. No. 206 (re Dkt. No. 205)). A clerk's notice reset their shared hearing (but no other deadlines).

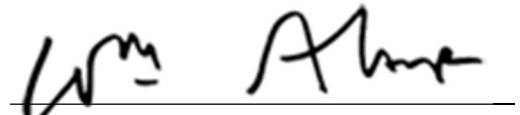

Now, Bright Data Ltd. submits three new discovery letter briefs (Dkt. Nos. 213, 215, 216). X Corp. shall file its responses, if any, BY NOON TOMORROW, FEBRUARY 27, 2025.

In light of the mushrooming discovery disputes in this case, all discovery letter briefs presented to the court thus far and still pending (above) will be heard in person AT 11:30 A.M. ON FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2025, IN COURTROOM 12, SAN FRANCISCO. Please do not ask to appear remotely. No further discovery disputes shall be submitted until after resolution of those already submitted.

At the 11:30 a.m. conference hearing, the Court wants to get the input of counsel as to whether the question of personal jurisdiction of Bright Data should be certified for interlocutory appeal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: February 26, 2025.

_____
WILLIAM ALSUP
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE